1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Election/Restrictions

2. Claims 3, 4, 7, 8 & 14 have been withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election of Species I shown in Figs. 1-6 was made without traverse in the reply filed on February 11, 2005.

Drawings

3. The replacement drawings filed September 8, 2006 are approved.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. Claims 2, 5, 9, 11-13, 15 & 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Beardmore et al, US 6,183,230. Figs. 3-6 show a decoupling element and two support power transmission combination, the decoupling element 42 made of deformable material (see col. 2, lines 49 & 50) and interposed between the faces of two supports 16 & 30 of a drive device 14 having a central axis of rotation 20, one of the supports adapted to be driven, the decoupling element adapted to transmit power from one of the supports to the other support, the other support adapted for further power transmission, the decoupling element being formed by a ring comprising a central core and two opposite faces where each face has abrupt projections with side flanks 44 meshed together with complementary abrupt projections (see also "coarse splined" at col. 2, line 2) with side flanks 34 on the opposing faces of the supports. Fig. 6 shows a partial split at the very top of the decoupling element 42.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 6 & 10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 2, 5, 9, 11-13 & 15 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action.
